

APPLICATION FOR ECONOMETRICS LABORATORY PROJECT ACCOUNT

Econometrics Laboratory project accounts are issued upon request to a faculty investigator or student research assistant in the Department of Economics. All accounts are subject to approval by the Laboratory's Manager. An account is issued to a specific individual who is held responsible for all activity within his/her account and agrees not to allow any other individual to access his/her account. This account may not be used for any commercial activity where any form of compensation is obtained. Econometrics Laboratory policies apply to all accounts, and acceptance of this account implies acknowledgement and acceptance of all Econometrics Laboratory policies. This account is a privilege and as such can be revoked if misused.

Files under this account are not personal property; as such, the Econometrics Laboratory reserves the right to review, modify, or delete any file or terminate any activity that may interfere with the operations or security of the Econometrics Laboratory.

All questions should be addressed to the Manager of the Econometrics Laboratory in room 643 Evans Hall (642-0619).
