

SHARAD TANDON

[https://webfiles.berkeley.edu/~tandon_econ/
stan@econ.berkeley.edu](https://webfiles.berkeley.edu/~tandon_econ/stan@econ.berkeley.edu)

Business Contact:

549 Evans Hall #3880
Berkeley, CA 94720-3880
(415) 244-4787

Research Fields:

Primary: International Trade
Political Economy
Secondary: Development Economics
Psychology and Economics

Fields of Concentration:

International Trade, Microeconomic Theory

Dissertation Title: “Essays in the Political Economy of India”

Expected Date of Completion: May 2008

Principal Advisor: Pranab Bardhan
Other References: Barry Eichengreen and Edward Miguel

Education:

Institution	Degree	Date	Field
University of California, Berkeley	Ph.D.	May 2008 [expected]	Economics
University of California, Berkeley	M.A.	2004	Economics
Cornell University	A.B. Cum Laude, with distinction in all subjects	2002	Economics

Job Market Paper:

“Economic Reform, Voting, and Local Political Intervention: Evidence from India”

Work In Progress:

“Production and Heckscher-Ohlin: A Role Left for Factor Endowments”
“Is There an Anti-Incumbency Effect in India?”
“Do Leveraged Buyouts Improve Target Company Performance?”

Research Experience:

Fisher Real Estate Center (April 2005 – January 2006)

Provided research assistance in analyzing a large establishment-level database and was responsible for various aspects of ongoing real estate research.

Research Assistant (2003)

Provided research assistance to Rebecca Hellerstein for a project on the pricing of AIDS drugs in African countries. Hellerstein is an economist at the New York Federal Reserve Bank.

Teaching Experience:

Graduate Student Instructor, Department of Economics:

Undergraduate Microeconomic Theory, Intermediate Macroeconomic Analysis, Intermediate Microeconomic Analysis, Undergraduate International Trade, Graduate Microeconomic Theory

Graduate Student Instructor, Haas School of Business (UC Berkeley):

Business Ethics

Fellowships:

Dean’s Normative Time Fellowship (2005)

Institute for Business and Economic Research Grant (2004)

Other Information:

Affiliations: American Economics Association

Citizenship: USA